ORDER GRANTING U.S. BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION
RELIEF FROM AUTOMATIC STAY AND ABANDONMENT

This case came before the Court on the Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay and for Abandonment (the “Motion”) filed by U.S. Bank, National Association, its successors and/or assigns (hereinafter “Creditor”), dated May 26, 2011.

The Court, after reviewing the record in this case, including the above-mentioned Motion, finds in this matter that notice and opportunity for hearing to the parties in interest was appropriate in the circumstances, that no objections were timely raised against said Motion; that Creditor seeks an Order terminating the stay of proceedings under 11 U.S.C. § 362 and requiring the Trustee to abandon the estate's interest in the Collateral under U.S.C. § 554, so as to allow Creditor (and successors and/or assigns) to proceed with foreclosure and to enforce rights, interests, claims and liens against the property commonly known as 1024 Goodell Street, Green Bay, Wisconsin 54301, owned by Cynthia A. Thomas (herein the "Debtor"); that it appears the Debtor has no equity in the property subject to the loan and security documents described in the Motion; that said property is not necessary for an effective reorganization of the Debtor or her estate; the mortgage interest and lien in and against the subject property cannot be adequately protected by the Debtor or the bankruptcy estate; that the property is burdensome or of inconsequential value and benefit to the bankruptcy estate; and that Creditor should be allowed the relief it seeks.

Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED:

That the Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay and for Abandonment filed by U.S. Bank, National Association, its successors and/or assigns ("Creditor"), and dated May 26, 2011, be and hereby is granted; that the stay of proceedings under 11 U.S.C. § 362 is terminated, so as to allow Creditor (and its successors and/or assigns) to enforce rights, interests, claims and liens in and against the property commonly known as 1024 Goodell Street, Green Bay, WI , 54301, owned by Cynthia A. Thomas (the "Debtor"), subject to the real estate mortgage dated April 23, 2004, recorded on May 11, 2004, in the Office of the Register of Deeds for Brown as Document No. 2118436, in accordance with the terms of the loan and security documents and applicable state law, including but not limited to proceedings to foreclose and liquidate the property, and the application of the proceeds to the indebtedness owed by the Debtor; that the Trustee abandon the estate's interest in the above-referenced property and the entry of this Order shall constitute said abandonment pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 554;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court waives the 14-day stay regarding orders granting a Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay, as referenced in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3).
